Wreck Diver

THE CHICAGO AREA boasts some of the best recreational wreck diving in the Great Lakes. Not only do we have all the wrecks that lie within a few miles of the Chicago harbor entrance, there are also great wrecks near Milwaukee and Waukegan (not to mention the awesome wreck diving found in Lake Superior).

Additionally, the skills you acquire as part of the PADI Wreck Diver Specialty Course can help you better enjoy all the man-made artifacts that litter the bottom of our local rock quarries.

As part of this course, you will have the opportunity to develop wreck diving skills on a variety of wrecks at Haigh Quarry and Pearl Lake. Once you are wreck certified you should use those new skills and dive the wonders of Lake Michigan.
